Collection level	1990.31/MS0230 & 1989.30/MS0230	Collection of company records, official publications and images relating to Frederick J. Abbott Ltd. An independent barging and warehouse company based in Stanley Street, Salford. The collection covers the period 1873 to 1987. The collection also contains financial records and correspondence for the businesses Bennett and Taylor Ltd and Alfred Baynton Ltd. Businesses which were acquired by the company under the director Mr Thomas Frederick Abbott in 1927.	1892-1987	Three shelves of annual return books, minute book, wages ledger, mortgage ledger, register of members, handbooks, box of correspondence, photographic material which includes glass plate negatives, photographs, maps and large pieces of artwork.	Prior to 1890 Mr Frederick John Abbott together with business partner Mr Walton ran a boat building company at Millbrow, Runcorn under the name Abbott and Walton. Around 1890 Mr F. J Abbott independently went into business as a barge building and carrying company at ports Manchester, Liverpool and Birkenhead. The business was successful and in 1892 in the Castlefield area F. J Abbott acquired leased land and built a boatyard, warehouse with ancillary building and rented stables. As the business continued to develop F.J Abbott purchased the flour mill in Stanley Street Salford. In 1912 Mr F.J Abbott retired as chairman of the company and was succeeded by Mr Tom Frederick Abbott who was later appointed company chairman. In 1915 the company began to provide storage accommodation for Daily Mail newspaper. In 1917 Mr F.J Abbott died and the company continued to be run by three generations of the Abbott family, Mr Tom Abbott, Mr T. F Abbott and Mr J.N Abbott. After the end of the canal carrying era the last motor barge Iris Abbott was launched in 1947. In September 1982 Frederick J Abbott Plc re-registered its name to FJA (Holding Ltd) and together with Associated Investments Harmworth formed the company Duncan Transrail Ltd. The company was taken over in 1989 and FJA (Holding Ltd) was closed down. The collection was donated by a former managing director of the company in 1989 and 1990.
